Lilo Fore Dressage Clinic

La Cresta Equestrian Center

Lilo Fore, originally from near Düsseldorf, Germany, began her lifelong passion for dressage at age four. After moving to the U.S. in 1971, she purchased a three-year-old Thoroughbred named Dionysus for $1 and trained him into a U.S. "Horse of the Year" at every level.

Over more than 30 years, Lilo has excelled as a breeder, trainer, coach, competitor, and international judge. She was shortlisted for the U.S. Equestrian Team in 1976 and founded Sporthorse America in Santa Rosa, CA, helping elevate American dressage to international standards.

As an FEI 5★ judge, she served on Ground Juries at major competitions including the Olympics, Pan American Games, World Cup Finals, and World Equestrian Games. A founding chair of the USDF Instructor-Trainer Certification Program, she has been a leading educator for U.S. trainers and judges.

In 2017, Lilo Fore was inducted into the USDF Hall of Fame, honoring her exceptional contributions to the advancement of dressage in the United States.
